O stone hearted Ganesa, resident-ever of the wall-niche! You have reduced your hapless father to the level of a common beggar, just to feed your cavernous belly! Am I not also his other son? Why don't you have a graceful glance at your sibling young!

- Sri Bhagavan

Soundaryamba became the effulgence, proclaimed by the Vedas and Upanishads, the effulgence that has pervaded all the worlds, the effulgence that manifested through the gaze of the son, Guha (Ramana).

- Ganapati Muni

O Lord of Annamalai! In your hill, on dark nights, herds of boar, deers-beautiful, fierce bears and elephants-huge gather together in numbers great! Thou stand as the epitome of jnana. Thy glance denudes the devotees of the mass of stupefying matter.

- Jnana Sambandar

We bow unto Him whose spreading grace is like the friend of the blue lily (the moon), who is bright like the lord of the lotus (the sun), who by his abidance in Brahman (state of pure Being), reminds one of his Father, who is firm like a rock under the Banyan tree.

- Ramana Gita - Ch.18, V.13

Dear fellow devotees,

The living presence of Sri Ramana Maharshi continues to inspire the path of Self-enquiry in those who remember Him. For those who surrender to Him, He is a guide across the ocean of samsara to the peace of the Self.

In 1922, following the liberation of His mother, her samadhi led to the founding of Sri Ramanasramam at the foot of Arunachala. She is worshipped as Matrubhuteswara.

After Sri Bhagavan's mahasamadhi in 1950, the Ramaneswara Mahalingam was established and consecrated in His honour.

By the Grace of Sri Bhagavan it is proposed to perform the Maha Kumbhabhishekam of Sri Matrubhuteswara and Sri Ramaneswara Maha Lingams on Wednesday the 20th August 2025 between 9:30 a.m. and 10:30 a.m.

All devotees are warmly invited to take part in this sacred event and receive the blessings of Sri Ramana Maharshi.
